

Overnight Trip to the Fall American Quilt Society Show in Paducah, KY
Wednesday Sept 13 to Thursday Sept 14, 2017.

The Show promises to be as large as the Spring Paducah Show.

1st day: Spend 2 hours at the massive Hancocks of Paducah quilt store and 3 hours at the show and vendors.

2nd day: Spend all day at the show, vendors, in town stores, or National Quilt Museum.

Bus departs Paducah at 3 pm on Thursday.

With a minimum of 33 persons signed up, price would be $175 each and include bus, driver's tip, two-day show admission and a shared bedroom with two double beds. For a single room, the price is $223.

Bus departs from Tellico Village at 7 am and returns the next day at about 10 pm.

Additional pickups/drop offs would be made in Lenoir City and further west on I-40.

Signups will finalize at the August Guild meeting on Friday August 11th.

The trip is open for friends and family. They do not have to join the guild to go. Please share this information with your quilting friends so that we can fill this fun trip.

E-mail Barbara Craig at Barbralou@aol.com to sign up.
