Fabric Exchanges:

- ✧ Choose a fabric theme for each fabric exchange, i.e. polka dots, flowers, blues, stripes, batiks, etc.
- ✧ Choose a size and type for each fabric exchange, i.e. squares, strips or fat quarters of any particular size.
- ✧ Take sign-ups no more than 2 months prior to the due date.
- ✧ Close out the sign-ups and communicate to all participants the number of packets of the chosen size and type are needed. Set deadline month for return of packets.
- ✧ Send an email reminder to the participants before the meeting when packets are due and/or forward pertinent information to the E-Bulletin Chair to include in that month's bulletin.
- ✧ Upon return, consolidate, organize and distribute packets back to participants.
- ✧ Insure all participants pick up their packets of exchanged fabrics.

Block Exchanges:

- ✧ Choose a focal fabric and (optional) background fabric; purchase sufficient fabric to make the needed number of individual packets as budget allows.
- ✧ Choose a block size and have each participant make any block of their choice or choose a block pattern that all participants will make. Mix it up for variety.
- ✧ Make a sample block or two, if desired, so members can see the possibilities with the fabric or the actual pattern that was chosen.
- ✧ Prep the fabrics and make up the needed number of packets of the fabric for interested members.
- ✧ Set out the fabric packets for all interested members. Set a deadline month for return of the blocks. You may or may not have signups.
- ✧ If you do have signups for the block exchange, then send an email reminder to the participant's before the meeting when blocks are due and/or send pertinent information to the E-Bulletin Chair to include in that month's bulletin.
- ✧ On the due date, each person should write their name on slip of paper and add to the name bucket. If block is member's choice, blocks may be displayed for all to see if desired.
